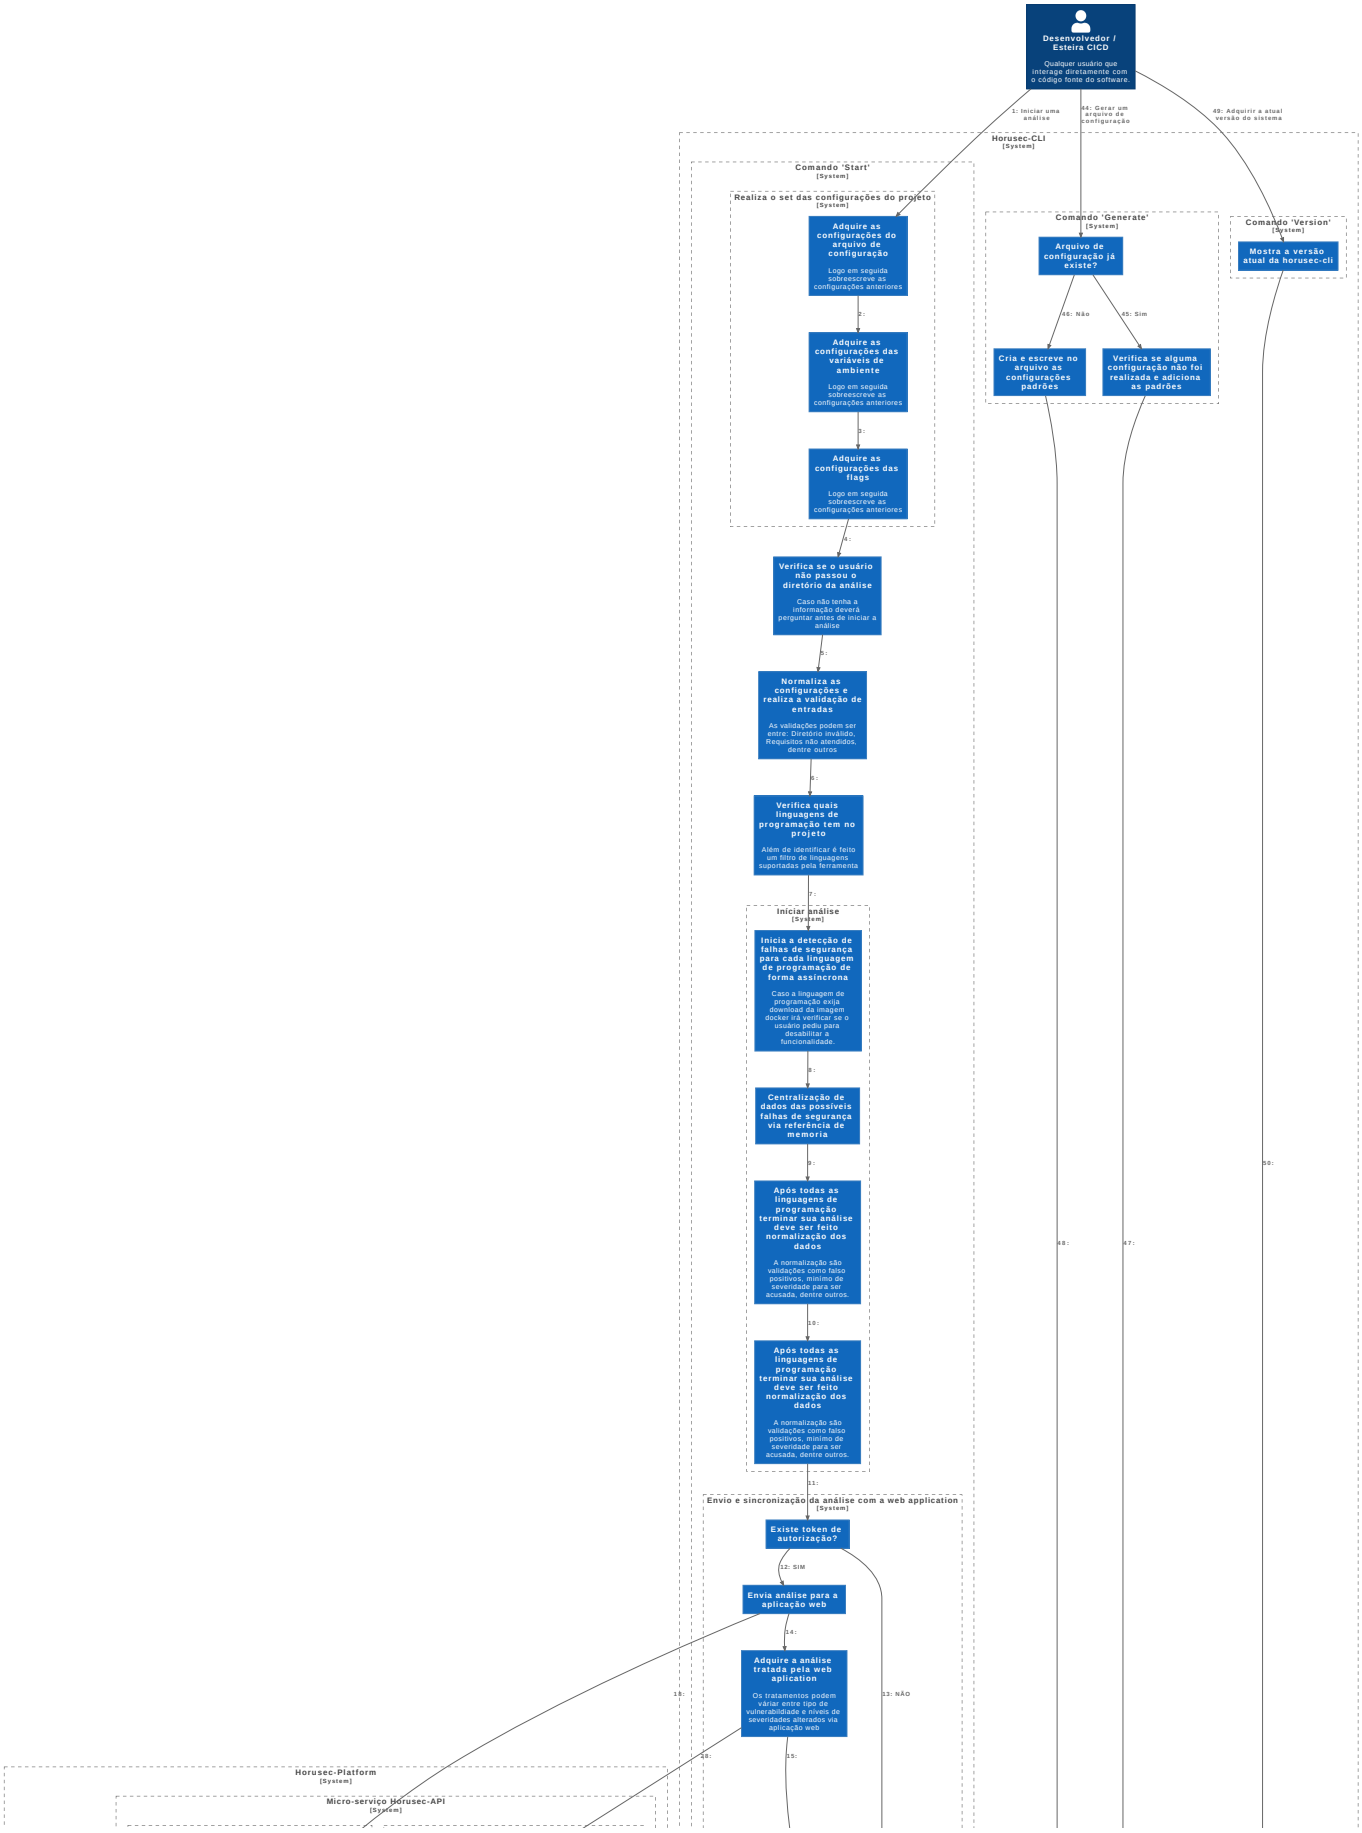
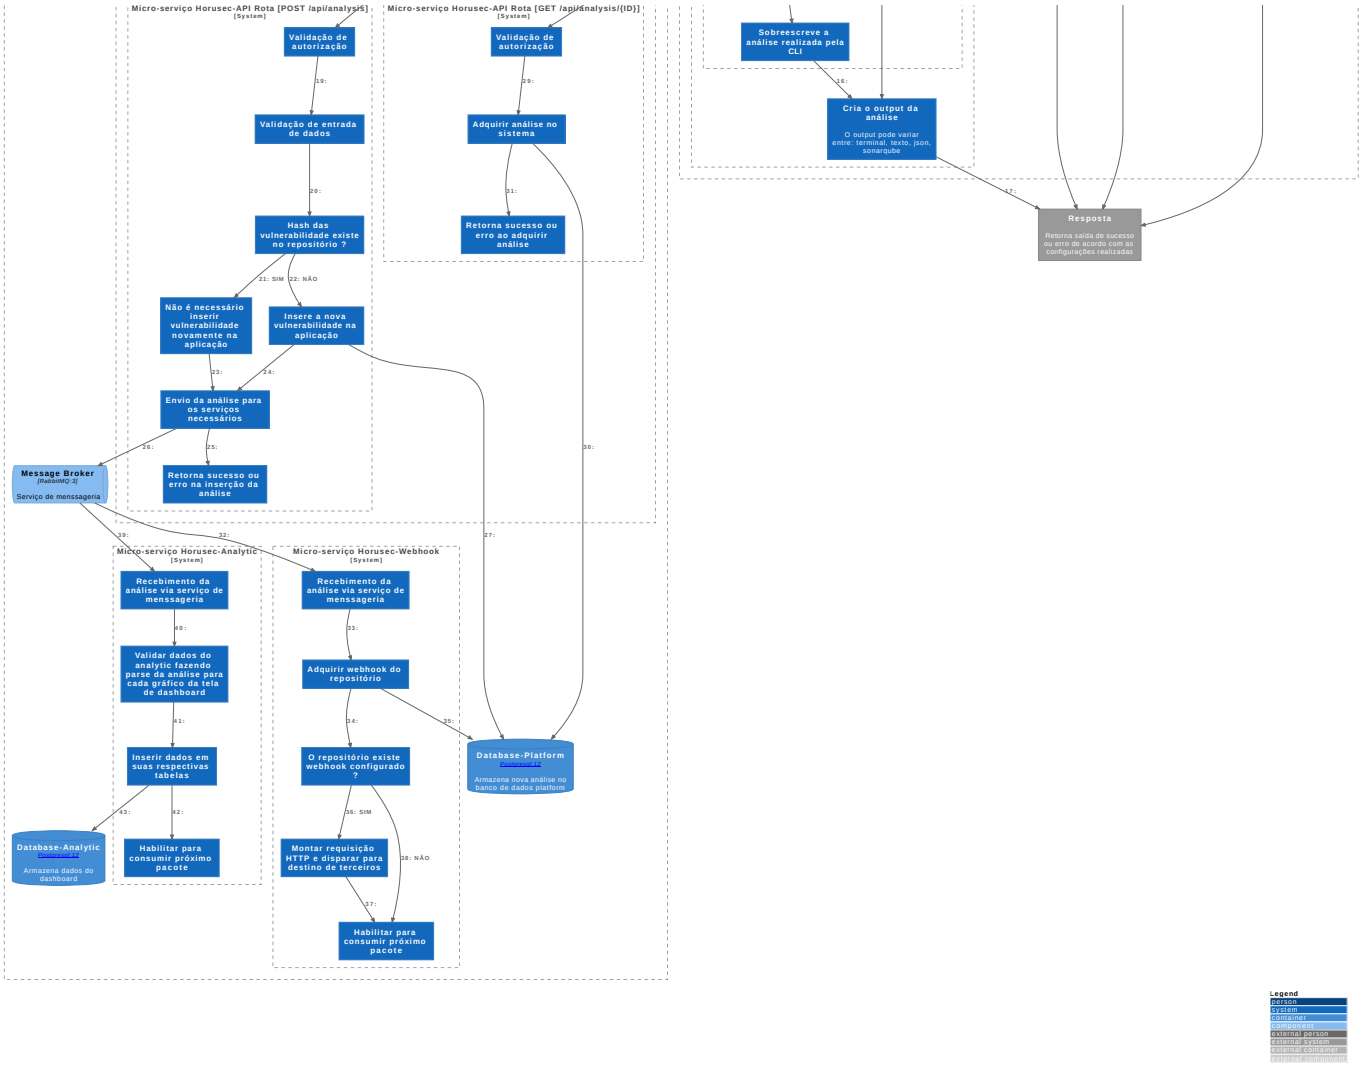
C3-Model

/Horusec-CLI/C3-Model





C4Model - C3

Description

Next you can zoom in and decompose each container further to identify the major structural building blocks and their interactions.

The Component diagram shows how a container is made up of a number of "components", what each of those components are, their responsibilities and the technology/implementation details.